REQUIREMENTS

The applicant has to have the residence in Asti: neither no ancestors nor the applicant have lost or renounced to Italian Citizenship.

HOW TO REQUEST

The interested person has to contact Citizenship office, asking to obtain the recognition of citizenship possession jure sanguinis. After office due checks and after receiving the appropriate instructions, the interested person presents instance in stamp to the Mayor for the recognition of citizenship possession jure sanguinis with, in attachment, the documentation foreseen by the Ministry of Interior n. K28.1 dated April 08, 1991 (acts of birth, wedding and in case of ancestors death acts; birth and in case wedding act of the applicant; declaration released from competent foreign office that states that ancestor has not acquired citizenship of the immigration Country. Besides he has to declare the existence of resident minor children and enclosing , in this case, complete copy of birth act of them: this because recognition of citizenship possession involves its extension also to resident minor children residents. Any major sons with residence in Asti will have to present instance of recognition of Italian citizenship possession.

DOCUMENTS TO PRESENT

- Instance in stamp addressed to the Mayor enclosing the above mentioned documentation
- Passport (where we can notice the entrance date in Italy : for 90 days after this date the permit of stay is not necessary)

PROCEDURE

The office, when receives the complete documentation instance, requires to competent Consulates the acknowledgment of non-renouncing to Italian citizenship for ancestors and for applicant residence.

In case of successful result of the procedure, the measure of the recognition of Italian citizenship possession is issued, giving communication to the interested person and to the other Institutional offices (Prefecture and Police), according to law requirements.
